

E-Rate remains critical for school districts to support learning in the 21st Century. We hope that continued thought specific to support for off campus E-Rate support could be made available to all qualifying E-Rate school districts.